

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

War Services of the Colonels.

1 Lord Harrington was employed in South America in 1807, and was present at the attack on Buenos Ayres. Served also in the Mahratta war of 1817 and 18, including the battle of Maheidpore, and storming of Talneir.

2 Sir John Morillyon Wilson served as Midshipman in the Navy for nearly six years. He was employed on the coast of Ireland during the rebellion in 1798; in the expedition to the Helder in 1799, and Egypt in 1801, where he received a medal from the Capitan Pasha for having saved the lives of a boat's crew belonging to a Turkish man-of-war. He received three wounds while a Midshipman; and the last was a severe wound on the head, which produced total deafness, in consequence of which he was invalided, and quitted the Navy in 1803. His health being restored, he entered the Army in 1804; and served in the third Battalion Royals at Walcheren in 1809, where he was twice wounded during the siege of Flushing. He afterwards served in the Peninsula, and was in the battles of Busaco, the retreat to the lines of Torres Vedras, and at the actions of Pombal, Redinha, Condeixa, Casal Nova, Foz d'Aronce, and Sabugal, the blockade of Almeida, and battle of Fuentes d'Onor. In 1812 he joined the 2nd Battalion Royals in Canada, and was in the attack made on Sackett's Harbour, and Greatodus (where he received a severe bayonet wound). He was also in the actions at Black Rock, Buffalo, and the battle of Chippewa, in which he received seven wounds, and being left on the field of battle, he fell into the hands of the enemy. During his career in the two professions he received thirteen wounds, and has two balls still lodged. The brevet rank of Major, and that of Lieutenant-Colonel was conferred upon him for his conduct at Buffalo and Chippewa. 1 Major Blakiston having passed through the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich in 1802, he proceeded to India as a Cadet in the East India Company's Service, and was appointed to the Corps of Engineers on the Madras Establishment, being then on half-pay as a Lieutenant in H. M. Service. In 1803 he served in the campaign against the Mahrattas, and was engaged in the battles of Assaye and Argaum, and at the sieges and assaults of Ahmednuggur and Gawilghur. At the suppression of the mutiny at Vellore in 1805 he directed the guns by which the gate was blown open. In 1810 he acted as Chief Engineer at the capture of the Island of Bourbon. Having been employed in reconnoitring the coast of the Isle of France previous to the arrival of the expedition, he was instrumental in discovering the spot where the descent was made; and, having been appointed to the charge of the Guides, he led the advance of the Army until the surrender of that Island. For his services on the above occasion he was nominated Extra Aide-de-Camp to the Commander-in-Chief, Sir Samuel Auchmuty, on the expedition to Java in 1811; and having been sent in advance with the Chief Engineer to fix on the point of landing, he was engaged in a serious affair on the coast in the boats of H. M. ships Barracouta and Leda. On the landing of the Army he was engaged in the affairs of Weltevreden and Samarang, and at the siege and assault of the fortified position of Cornelis. In 1812, having attained the rank of Captain in the corps of Madras Engineers, he returned on furlough to England. Shortly afterwards, having been placed on full pay in H. M. 87th Regt., he was appointed to a Company in the 17th Portuguese Regt., with which he served in the Light Division of the Peninsular Army until the conclusion of the war; having been present at the battles of Vittoria, Nivelle, Nive, Orthes, and Toulouse, and in all the affairs in which the Light Division was engaged. At the siege of San Sebastian he volunteered as an Engineer, and while so engaged was severely wounded. For his services on this occasion he was promoted to a Company in the 27th Regt.; in 1816 was placed on half-pay; and on the 23rd June 1843 he was brought on full pay of the 51st Regt., and retired by the sale of his commissions. He has received the War Medal with six Clasps; also the Indian War Medal.

2 Lt.-Col. Cooke served with the 43rd Regt. at Walcheren, in 1809. In June 1811 he joined the Light Division in the Peninsula, and was present at the siege and storming of Ciudad Rodrigo, and of Badajoz (wounded at the assault), actions of Castrejon and San Christoval, battle of Salamanca, actions of San Munoz and San Milan, battle of Vittoria (wounded), actions in the Pyrenees, siege of San Sebastian, the attack on the heights of Vera, battle of the Nivelle, battles of the Nive on the 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th Dec., actions at Tarbes and Arcangues, battle of Toulouse, besides various affairs of less importance. On the 8th Jan. 1815, he was present at the attack on the American Lines before New Orleans. He served afterwards with the Army during the Occupation in France. He has received the War Medal with eight Clasps.

3 Lt.-Colonel Nevill served in the Peninsula with the 2nd Battalion of the 30th, from July 1810 to May 1813; also the campaign of 1814 in Holland, and that of 1815 in the Netherlands: he was present at the defence of Cadiz, occupation of the lines of Torres Vedras, various minor actions when in pursuit of Massena, battle of Fuentes d'Onor, siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, siege and storm of Badajoz (severely wounded in the head and leg when leading the ladder party in the Escalade of the St. Vincent Bastion), battle of Salamanca, capture of Madrid, siege of Burgos (severely wounded through the left shoulder in the storm of the first line of the castle, 4th Oct. 1812), bombardment of Antwerp, assault on Bergen-op-Zoom, battle of Waterloo, and capture of Paris: throughout all the above-mentioned sieges he acted as an Assistant Engineer. In 1817-18 and 19 he served in the Mahratta war, from the battle of Mahidpore (as a volunteer) to the siege of Asseerghur; and in 1820 he was attached to the Nizam's Troops at the capture of a Predatory Force. After serving 22 years in India with the 30th and 18th Dragoons, and 30th and 63rd Regts., his health failed when in command of the left wing of the 63rd, in a very unhealthy climate. He has received the War Medal with four Clasps; also the India War Medal.

5 Captain M'Coy was present at the operations against the rebel natives of the Southern district of New Zealand, in the Horokiwai Valley, including the skirmish on the 6th Aug. 1846. Also present in the action at Wanganui on the 19th July 1847.

7 Captain Hobson served with the 10th Foot in the Sutlej campaign in 1846, and was present at the

<sup>1</sup> Lord Combermere accompanied his Regt. (the 6th Dr. Gds.) to Flanders in Aug. 1793, and served to the end of that campaign, and until June of the following one. In 1796 he embarked in command of the 25th Lt. Dra. for the Cape of Good Hope, and served a short but active campaign under Sir Thomas Craig, when he accompanied his Regt. to India, where he served in the memorable campaigns of 1798 and 99, against Tippoo Sultan, including the battle of Mallavelly, and siege of Seringapatam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1808, in command of a brigade of cavalry, consisting of the 14th and 16th Lt. Dra., at the head of which he distinguished himself, during the campaign in the north of Portugal, including the operations at Oporto, and afterwards at the battle of Talavera. In Aug. 1809, the local rank of Lieut.-Gen. was conferred upon him; and, early in 1810, he was appointed to the command of the whole allied cavalry under the Duke of Wellington, and remained in that command until the termination of the war in 1814, and distinguished himself at the head of the cavalry upon every occasion that presented itself, including the various actions in covering the retreat from Almeida to Torres Vedras, battle of Busaco, actions at Villa Garcia and Castrajon, battles of Fuentes d'Onor and Salamanca (severely wounded), action at El Bodon, battles of the Pyrenees, Orthes, and Toulouse. Served also at the siege and capture of Bhurtpore, in 1825 and 26, as Commander-in-Chief. His Lordship has received a Medal for Seringapatam; the Gold Cross and one Clasp for the battles of Talavera, Fuentes d'Onor, Salamanca, Orthes, and Toulouse; and the Silver War Medal with three Clasps for Busaco, Ciudad Rodrigo, and Pyrenees.

[Returned from France, 2 February 1816.]

<sup>1</sup> Lord Gough served at the capture of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Dutch Fleet in Saldanha Bay, 1795. Served afterwards in the West Indies, including the attack on Porto Rico, the brigand war in St. Lucia, and capture of Surinam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1809, and commanded the 67th at the battles of Talavera, Barrosa, Vittoria, and Nivelle, for which engagements he has received a Gold Cross. He also commanded the Regiment at the defence of Cadiz and of Tarifa (slightly wounded in the head). At the battle of Talavera his horse was shot under him, and he himself was afterwards severely wounded in the side by a shell,—for his conduct in this action the Duke of Wellington subsequently recommended that his Lieut.-Colonelcy should be ante-dated to the date of his despatch, thus making him the first officer who ever received Brevet rank for services performed in the field at the head of a regiment. At Barrosa his Regiment captured the Eagle of the 8th French Regiment; and at Vittoria they captured the Baton of Marshal Jourdan. At the Nivelle he was again severely wounded. Commanded the Land Force at Canton —for which he was made a GCB.—and during nearly the whole of the operations in China,—for which service he was created a Baronet. On the 29th Dec. 1843, with the right wing of the army of Gwalior, he defeated a Mahratta force at Maharajpore, and captured 56 guns, &c. In 1845 and 46 the Army under his Lordship's personal command defeated the Sikh Army at Moodkee, Ferozeshuh, and Sobraon, for which and previous services he was raised to the Peerage; and, in 1849, he was created a Viscount after his crowning victory over the Sikhs at Goojerat (Medal and Clasp).

<sup>3</sup> Captain Leslie served in the Eastern campaign of 1854, and was severely wounded at the battle of the Alma, while serving as orderly officer to Lord Raglan (Medal and Clasp).

Carlist army, 16,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 16th May—of Yrun, by storm, 17th May—of Fontarabia by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Thenceforth “The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden”—(British Commissioners’ Despatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut.-General in the national army of Spain, by licence of a British royal warrant; also, honoured by her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the grand crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. Received his Company, Majority, and Lieut.-Colonelcy in the British service for conduct against the enemy. Commanded the 2nd Division in the Eastern campaign of 1854, including the battles of the Alma (wounded), Balaklava, and Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol, comprising the repulse of the powerful sortie on the 26th Oct. 1854.

On the approach of our troops these madmen, armed with matchlocks, spears, swords, and war knives, rushed out upon the detachment, and a sanguinary conflict ensued, terminating in the destruction of the entire Mopia band, 64 in number, three of whom were killed by Major Dennis, who received a contusion on the chest and a few slight wounds.

War Services of the Officers of the Royal Marines.

3 Colonel Philips served as a Midshipman on board H. M. S. Belleisle at the battle of Trafalgar. As an officer of Royal Marines, he was present at the storming of three of the enemy's entrenched batteries and siege of Santa Maura, and frequently employed in boat affairs on the coasts of Italy and Dalmatia. In April 1812, he joined the first Battalion; served with it in Spain and in America, including the storming of the enemy's entrenched camp at Hampton in Virginia, and frequent affairs with the enemy there. Detached to Canada and served under Commodore Sir James Yeo, on the Lakes Ontario, Erie, and Champlain.

9 Colonel Graham served with the army in the Battalion formed of the Marines of the squadron at the taking of Walcheren in 1809. Also served in the 1st Battalion in Portugal and in operations on the north coast of Spain, at the taking and defence of Castro. Proceeded with the battalion to America, where it was brigaded under Sir Sidney Beckwith at the attack upon Norfolk, and the taking of Hampton, and several small places. The brigade being broken up, he went with the battalion to Canada; whilst there, he was sent with a detachment in command of a division of gun boats to attack a battery at the head of Lake Champlain, with which they were engaged some hours. Returned with the battalion to the coast of America, and was at the attack and taking of Fort Point Petre and the town of St. Mary's, in Georgia; shortly after his promotion in 1837, he exchanged to join the battalion in Spain. He was afterwards at the demonstration before Nankin in China (Medal). Commanded the R. M. Battalion in the Brigade under General Jones, acting in conjunction with the French army at the bombardment and surrender of the forts at Bomarsund, Aland Isles, in Aug. 1854.

10 Colonel Childs served in H. M. S. Gibraltar, blockading Cherbourg, L'Orient, and Basque Roads, and frequently in boats cutting out French coasters. Early in 1813 he volunteered to serve in the 1st Battalion under Colonel Sir Richard Williams in the Chesapeake, and was at the attack of Craney Island, taking of the enemy's camp at Hampton, and capture of Kent Island, and in many minor engagements on the enemy's coast; after which he accompanied the battalion to Canada, and was actively employed on the Frontiers, and frequently in command of gun-boats on Lake Champlain. On the 11th Sept. 1814, he was engaged on board the Confiance, in one of the most severe actions fought during the war, in which Commodore Downie (the captain of the ship), Captain Anderson, R. M., and 41 men were killed, and upwards of 100 wounded, out of a complement of 260. He also served the Syrian campaign (Medal) of 1840, including the attack and capture of Sidon, capture of Beyrout, bombardment of Acre, and other desultory services.

12 Colonel Wesley served in a Battalion of Marines formed from the squadron under Sir Alex. Cochrane at the attack and capture of Guadaloupe, St. Martin's and St. Eustatia in 1810. In blockading squadrons off Brest, L'Orient, and Basque Roads, including several successful boat affairs under the Batteries of Rochelle and Isle d'Aix in 1811. In coast operations, north of Spain; and, with the 1st Battalion of Marines, in Portugal, in 1812. At the attack on Norfolk, and the entrenched camp of Hampton, &c. in the Chesapeake. On the 7th October, 1813, a General Order, of which the following is an abstract, was issued by the Commander-in-Chief:—

Whereas considerable inconvenience has arisen from the number of Medals which have been issued in commemoration of the brilliant and distinguished events in which the success of His Majesty's arms has received the Royal approbation, the Prince Regent has been pleased to command that the following Regulations shall be adopted in the grant and circulation of such marks of distinction: viz.—

1st. That one Medal only shall be borne by each Officer recommended for such distinction.

2nd. That for the second and third events, which may be subsequently commemorated in like manner, each individual recommended to bear the distinction shall carry a Gold Clasp attached to the ribbon to which the Medal is suspended, and inscribed with the name of the Battle or Siege to which it relates.

3rd. That upon a claim being admitted to a fourth mark of distinction, a Cross shall be borne by each officer, with the names of the four Battles or Sieges respectively inscribed thereupon; and to be worn in substitution of the distinctions previously granted to such individuals.

4th. Upon each occasion of a similar nature that may occur subsequently to the grant of a Cross, the Clasp shall again be issued to those who have a claim to the additional distinction, to be borne on the ribbon to which the Cross is suspended, in the same manner as described in No. 2 of these Regulations.

His Royal Highness was further pleased to command that the distribution of Medals or Badges for Military services of distinguished merit shall be regulated as follows: viz.—

1st. That no General or other Officer shall be considered entitled to receive them, unless he has been personally and particularly engaged upon those occasions of great importance and peculiar brilliancy, in commemoration of which such marks of distinction are to be bestowed.

2nd. That no Officer shall be considered a candidate for the Medal, or Badge, except upon the special selection and report of the Commander of the Forces upon the spot, as having merited the distinction by conspicuous services.

3rd. That the Commander of the Forces shall transmit to the Commander-in-Chief, Returns, signed by himself, specifying the names and ranks of those Officers whom he shall have selected as particularly deserving.

4th. The Commander of the Forces in making the selection will restrict his choice to the under-mentioned ranks: viz.—

General Officers.

Commanding Officers of Brigades.

Commanding Officers of Artillery, or Engineers.

Adjutant-General, and Quarter-Master-General.

Deputies of ditto, and ditto, having the rank of Field Officers.

Assistants, Adjutant and Quarter-Master-Generals, having the rank of Field Officers, and being at the head of the Staff, with a detached Corps, or distinct division of the Army.

Military Secretary, having the rank of Field Officer.

Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement, in consequence of the death or removal of the original Commanding Officer.

The Crosses, Medals, and Clasps, are to be worn by the General Officers, suspended by a Ribbon of the colour of the sash, with a blue edge, round the neck; and by the Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement; the Chiefs of Military Departments, and their Deputies and Assistants (having the rank of Field Officers); and such other Officers as may be specially recommended, attached by a Ribbon of the same description to the button-hole of their uniform.

Those Badges which would have been conferred upon the Officers who have fallen at or died since the Battles and Sieges, shall, as a token of respect for their memories, be transmitted to their respective families.—Vide the London Gazette, 9th October, 1813.
